2 Gardd Denman is a modern and bright property consisting of four bedrooms, two of which being en-suite bedrooms. The large open-plan living room/kitchen is the perfect place to spend time together whether you are cooking or watching TV. This space comes fully furnished with a breakfast bar area - making it easier for those who prefer eating their meals at a table, a double sofa and arm chair, and a small side table. There is also a utility room located in the garden of the property which has a washing machine inside. The garden is also spacious with plenty of space for a good BBQ during the summer months!
