49B Holyhead Road is a freshly renovated, two-bedroom apartment, with modern décor and furnishings throughout.

The property has a new, fully-fitted kitchen, with an oven, hob, fridge-freezer washing machine, cupboard storage and plenty of countertop space. Both the bedrooms have their own perks, one offers more space with a large bay window, the other is located across the hall and has its own en suite bathroom.

Both bedrooms will include a double bed, storage furniture and a desk, whilst the living area includes a comfortable sofa and television, making it an ideal place to wind down after a long day.

Situated a prime location within Upper Bangor, the property has all the local amenities on its doorstep. From the front door, you are within a minute walk of pubs, restaurants, shops, barbers, café and even the University.
