5 Penchwintan Road is a recently renovated, two-bedroom house featuring contemporary décor and furnishings. The sitting room is a comfortable space in which to relax and opens onto a stylish kitchen fitted with gloss wall, base units and integrated appliances.

Stairs lead up to a spacious, bright and airy double bedroom. The large bathroom is fitted to a high standard and features a glazed double shower cubicle, a washbasin, a WC, and a cupboard housing a washing machine. The second bedroom is a spacious, converted attic room with a Velux window.

This property is located just off Caernarfon Road and has easy transport links to the A55. It is also conveniently located within a short walking distance of Bangor High Street, several main supermarkets, the train station, and many local amenities, such as bars, cafés, and retail stores.
