15 Fairview Road is a spacious two-bedroom property tastefully styled throughout. The living room is a warm and inviting room, with a beautiful fireplace and high ceilings. A separate dining space with dining table and chairs and two-seater sofa is great for entertaining, with a large door opening onto a patio in the garden. The kitchen contains a washing machine, large fridge-freezer and electric oven and hob. Each bedroom has ample storage, as well as large windows that let in a wealth of natural light. On-road parking is available, and the property is located close to Bangor's main high street which has all the shops you could ever need.
