107 Orme Road is a spacious two-bedroom property in a great location close to Bangor pier and the high street. There is a large living space which combines both the kitchen and living room to make an open plan area great for socialising. The bathroom features a large walk-in shower cubicle and there are three beds available in the property. On-street car parking is available, one of the main benefits of this property is its proximity to both the high street and local supermarkets.
