Located just a short walk away from Bangor University's main Arts building, as well as a wide range of local amenities, Haulfryn is the ideal home for a large group. There are six bedrooms in the property, with four large bedrooms and a two smaller ones, with some of these bedrooms also containing wash basins and two bedrooms also having their own en-suite. In addition there is also a recently renovated bathroom, well equipped large kitchen and reception area, including a 50" TV, making it the perfect area to socialise in. The rent is also inclusive of the utility bills. The property is fully-furnished throughout and benefits from a fully-enclosed garden too. Adjacent to several University buildings, as well as just a short walk away from Bangor High Street and the train station, Haulfryn is the perfect choice if you wish to be close to everything.
