64 Penchwintan Road is a modern six-bedroom house located on the corner of a quiet residential area a ten-minute walk from Bangor's train station. Each bedroom is spacious and furnished with a bed, desk and storage furniture. Sleek and colourful the kitchen comes well equipped with a double sink, oven, hob, fridge and freezer. An island that sits in the centre of the room provides extra space for storage and meal preparations. Two large patio doors are also found in this room leading into the back garden. Sliding wooden doors allow the living room to be open to the kitchen or closed for more privacy with two sofas adding to the chill atmosphere emitted here. This property is situated just off from Caernarfon Road, one of the main roads in and out of Bangor. Fifteen minutes up the road many retail outlets and chain restaurants can be accessed. Fifteen minutes in the other direction both Bangor's main and Upper high street can be reach giving a real diverse choice of places to dine and shop as well as further access to many University buildings.
