Another communal space comes in the form of the living room, which benefits from a large bay window that lets in lots of natural light. A sealed fireplace and homely décor adorn this room giving it a warm atmosphere, with seating for each tenant in the form of two armchairs and a two-seat sofa. All bedrooms are of a decent size and come with a study desk to work from. The bathroom is bright, featuring a large walk-in shower, toilet and sink with an additional WC located elsewhere.
