61 Hill Street is a fully furnished, three-bedroom home conveniently situated in Upper Bangor. Each bedroom is bright and airy and includes a bed, desk and an array of storage furniture. An open plan kitchen/living room incorporates both a dining area and space for meal preparation. The living room contains a dining table and chairs on a carpeted floor, with the kitchen containing a washing machine, oven, sink and a multitude of countertops and cupboards. With a sleek design the bathroom contains all the essential fittings with a toilet, walk-in shower and sink. Being in Upper Bangor means this property is just a stone's throw away from great night life, shopping and dining venues, with many of the University's buildings within close walking distance.
