Newlands is in a great location, just a few minutes' walk from Bangor City Centre, in close proximity several University buildings, local supermarkets and Bangor train station. Situated at the end of the High Street, Newlands has breath-taking views of Bangor's seafront as well as the rest of the city.

This large six bedroomed property with three ensuite bathroom and two communal bathrooms has all double beds and two stylish living rooms. The modern large open plan kitchen has two washing machines, two fridge freezers, two cookers and two sinks so you will not struggle to cook different meals all together. There is a conservatory with a pool table and dartboard which is a great space for some downtime with your housemates.

The water & the internet included in rent making this property great for those wanting to effectively manage a budget.
