3 Salem Court is a modern home located close to the sea. This house consists of two fully furnished, large bedrooms both including a study desk and chair. The bathroom contains a bath and shower as well as a sink and toilet. The kitchen is fully fitted out with a washing machine, oven with hob, a fridge freezer, sink and breakfast bar. A spacious living room comes equipped with a large, comfy sofa, coffee table and television. You will not need to struggle with parking as this property has its own private parking. Being so close to the water you are only a short walk away from Garth Pier, one of Bangor's most beautiful sites. Nearby you will also find Roman Camp which provides astonishing views across the Menai Straits.
