Conveniently located at the top of Upper Bangor's high street, 62 Holyhead Road is a large and spacious five-bedroom property. All bills are included with this property, further adding to its desirability and meaning there is one less stress for you to take care of. All five bedrooms are fully furnished and come with a bed, desk and storage furniture. The living room is bright and welcoming due to a feature fireplace and large bay window that floods the room with light. This room is also furnished with two comfy leather sofas and a coffee table. The kitchen is modern with plenty of floor space and includes a dining table with chairs. This room is also fully fitted with appliances, including a large fridge freezer, washing machine, tumble dryer and oven. Finally, in order to accommodate for all tenants, there is a WC with toilet and sink in addition to a sleek bathroom containing plenty of storage and a large shower cubicle. Upper Bangor's high street is home to a plethora of local amenities such as cafes, restaurants, pubs, shops and a supermarket, all of which can be found at this property's doorstep.
