Located in Upper Bangor, 37 Hill Street is a high end four-bedroom property with lots to offer prospective tenants. Each of the spacious modern bedrooms come with a double bed along with stylish matching furniture throughout, including a large desk that provides an excellent work area. Continuing with the modern theme throughout this home is the kitchen, which is bright and airy, due to the multiple large windows letting in plenty of natural light. This makes it a great space for meal preparation, with a large fridge freezer, oven, sink and ample countertop space. Also situated in the kitchen is a washing machine, allowing for convenient laundry service at your leisure. This property is in a fantastic location as it is in close walking distance to many University buildings, including the main building itself. Upper Bangor hosts many local and chain businesses including shops, restaurants, pubs and a supermarket; all accessible within several minutes of walking. All bills are included in the rental price.
