A fantastic choice for any students looking for communal living in Upper Bangor, 39 Hill Street is only a short walk to Bangor's main University building. Each of this property's four bedrooms are spacious and a great space to call your own, with large windows that ensure they are well-lit all year long. A bright and modern kitchen contains all the amenities you will require with a fridge freezer, oven, sink and an abundance of worktop space. Designed for entertaining, the carpeted living room boasts two large sofas situated either side of a working fireplace that brings the whole house together and solidifies it as a home. Close to Upper Bangor's high street this property is near to a variety of local and chain businesses offering many different services.
