Situated close to Bangor train station and local shops, 11 Ffriddoedd Road is located perfectly for student life. The property has five bedrooms, each with study area and storage space. A large, modern kitchen with stylish red tiles makes for a great place to socialise, with the dining table and chairs providing ample seating. For large gatherings the living room has two sofas and two armchairs, meaning you won't be short of places to entertain. In the property you will also find a utility room with washing machine and tumble dryer, bathroom with shower and WC. Private parking is available with this property, as is the option to add bills to the rent.
