42 Caellepa is a property located just off the high street. The views from this property are some of the best that Bangor has to offer. Its location on a hill allows you to view almost all central Bangor and the universities picturesque Main Arts building on the opposite hill. Its prime location off the High Street means shops, restaurants and bars a literally down the high. This 4-bedroom split over 4 floors gives a unique sense of privacy in a shared property. Each bedroom has its own sense of character allowing for a little of individuality. The bedrooms make excellent use of there space with plenty of storage and natural light. The kitchen is large and well equipped and a great place to cook with friends. The property has its own private outdoor area with a table and seating making this a great space to chill or entertain guests in the summer. On street parking is available if you have a vehicle, however, its location means bus and train links are a few minutes' walk away.
