Annual service charge includes water, contribution to gas, plus buildings insurance
Walking distance to town centre, bus & railway stations | Allocated and visitors' parking | No onward chain

This extraordinary two double bedroom, two bathroom penthouse apartment is approached via an individual staircase from the second floor and given its elevation at the top of this iconic building, affords an uninterrupted bird's eye view towards the Bloreng in the far distance. Exceptionally large, generously proportioned, and spacious with ceiling heights of more than 10', this grand apartment has an overall size of just over 1100 ft² / 102m² and features an impressive triple aspect lounge / diner / kitchen / study, on its own measuring a considerable size of about 580 ft² / 53 m². This open plan space is bathed in natural light from its tall arched windows and is a great reception space for entertaining family and friends.

This historic development is perfectly positioned for walking into town or travelling further afield either by car via the excellent road links or by train with connections to Cardiff and Manchester or central London and Bristol via Newport. Offered to the market with the benefit of no onward chain, allocated parking, a long lease, and most of the utility costs covered by an encompassing annual service charge, this apartment will suit a range of buyers looking to settle in the town full time, or those just seeking a base from which to explore the wider area.

SITUATION | Sarno Square enjoys an enviable location in a superb Grade II listed development just under a mile from the centre of Abergavenny. A conveniently located footpath nearby the property leads through a tranquil wooded copse to the River Gavenny, giving quick and ambient pedestrian access to the town centre, bus station and train station.

The historic town centre offers comprehensive leisure and shopping amenities including individual boutique style shops, bistros and restaurants, independent grocery and newsagent stores, supermarkets, and a plethora of well-known high street shops.

Abergavenny hosts a market several times a week in its iconic Market Hall which attracts people from far and wide to its Farmers' market. The town boasts its own cinema, theatre, and leisure centre as well as being a sought-after destination as a foodie haven, attracting famous chefs from across the world to its annual Food Festival; there are numerous eateries and gastro pubs in the town and the neighbouring villages providing evening entertainment and culinary delight. The town is particularly well served by popular schools for all ages at both primary and secondary level with the nearest primary school being within walking distance in a neighbouring road. Schools in the private sector are also accessible and can be found in Monmouth, Hereford, Brecon, and Newport.

The area is an ideal base for professional and amateur leisure pursuits. There are many sports clubs and activities including rugby, football, tennis, bowls, and swimming and of course, cycling at both amateur and professional level, all close-by. For those seeking long walks, there are pathways leading to the River Usk and the Brecon to Monmouthshire Canal as well as to the summit of the Bloreng, one of the seven mountains that surrounds this historic town, ready to explore and located just a short distance away.

Abergavenny railway station is accessible by bus, car or even walking whilst road links at the Hardwick roundabout give easy access to the motorway and "A" routes to Cardiff, Newport plus further afield to the M4 linking Bristol, west Wales and the Midlands.
