Cross Ash

Abergavenny, Monmouthshire NP7 8PB

Abergavenny 8 miles | Monmouth 9 miles | Ross On Wye 14 miles

A charming, detached cottage situated in the small rural hamlet of Cross Ash

Three reception rooms | Three/Four bedrooms | Farmhouse style kitchen/Breakfast Room

Utility room | Family bathroom | Separate toilet | Large garden including a small paddock and double garage with extensive parking

Beautiful outlook over the surrounding countryside | No Onward Chain

Three Salmons Cottage is believed by the sellers to date back to the late 1800's and over time has been the subject of various additions which has culminated in the creation of the charming and comfortable family home it is today. The versatile accommodation is split level and provides a large utility room/entrance, farmhouse style kitchen/breakfast room, sitting room and bathroom on the ground floor, 3/4 bedrooms and toilet on the first floor plus a large living room and separate dining room on the lower ground floor. The property stands in large gardens including a small paddock that takes full advantage of commanding views over the surrounding countryside and includes extensive parking facilities, a double garage and patio area.

SITUATION | This charming cottage is situated in the small and highly regarded Monmouthshire parish of Cross Ash. Homes in the area are particularly sought after due to the highly regarded primary school and the renowned 1861 Restaurant, favoured for its fine cuisine. A school bus service connects the locality with both the local primary school and further afield to the schools in Monmouth. The area is also renowned for its outdoor pursuits including hill walking along the famous Offa's Dyke pathway, the three Castles of Skenfrith, Grosmont & Whitecastle and the Monnow Valley walk plus pony trekking, and of course cycling along the national cycle route.

For more comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities, Abergavenny and Monmouth are both easily accessible and boast many high street shops and local boutiques as well as renowned restaurants, bistros and cafes.

A railway station in Abergavenny provides regular services into central London via Newport, whilst local road links via the A465 give easy access to the motorway for Bristol, Birmingham, the South West and London and "A" routes for Monmouth, Hereford, Cwmbran and Cardiff.
