This generously appointed three bedroomed semi-detached family home is beautifully presented for sale and sits in well-tended gardens, enjoying a delightful outlook to both front and rear aspects with long distance views towards the Deri, the Little Skirrid and the Blorenges.

In a great location, being within walking distance to a local parade of shops and both primary and high schools, this extended property is neutrally decorated throughout and has two connecting reception rooms with French doors from the dining room opening into the rear garden. From the dining room, a door leads to an adjoining kitchen / breakfast room, plus the separate utility room giving access from the side of the house to both the front and rear gardens. To the first floor, the three bedrooms, two double and one single, are served by a modern white bathroom suite to include an electric shower over the bath.

A well-planted rear garden benefits from three attached brick-built outbuildings with plumbing installed for a gardener's wc, in addition to a workshop and garden store. This home has a good layout, but it equally lends itself to alteration and adaptation to suit. Available to the market with no forward chain, the property will suit families ready to move.

SITUATION | This family home is in a popular residential location within walking distance of a local parade of shops and several schools at primary level as well as the town's high school, King Henry VIII.

Enjoying a landscape rich in beauty and history, the town centre boasts a comprehensive range of shopping and leisure facilities, including a wide selection of boutique style shops, grocery and newsagent stores, supermarkets, including a large Waitrose with Home section and many well-known high street shops. Abergavenny also hosts a farmers' market several times a week as well as having its own cinema, theatre, and leisure centre, plus several restaurants for evening entertainment. Culturally important, local events of national and international significance include the Abergavenny food festival, the Green Man music festival and the Hay festival of literature, with other regular events taking place throughout the year.

The area is frequented by outdoor pursuits and sports enthusiasts with excellent opportunities for hang gliding, pony trekking, canoeing, mountain walking and running. The railway station has regular services into Cardiff (34mins), Bristol and London via Newport (25mins) whilst road links give easy access to the motorway for Bristol (1hr), Cardiff (1hr), Birmingham, the South West and London and "A" routes for Monmouth, Cheltenham and Brecon.
