This much cherished three bedroomed end of terrace family home is being offered to the market for the first time in over 70 years and sits in an enviable, elevated private lane setting at the beginning of a small cul-de-sac with hillside views towards the Little Skirrid. Although requiring cosmetic updating, this family home has been fitted with a new central heating system in 2023 and was extended some years ago culminating in a property with good room proportions to include a spacious hallway, two reception rooms, and a dual aspect kitchen / breakfast room on the ground floor. The two double bedrooms plus one large single bedroom are served by a first floor bathroom suite in addition to an external wc and the property also has the added benefit of several ancillary outhouses en-bloc comprising a scullery and two stores. There is a considerable arrangement of space outside featuring three garden areas and a large garage with attached workshop. This charming home has no forward chain and occupies a great position on the periphery of town yet with ease of access to services, amenities and schooling.

For those seeking country walks, there are pathways leading to the River Usk and the Monmouthshire & Brecon Canal as well as to the mountains that surround this historic town, which are ready to explore and are located just a short distance away. Abergavenny railway station is accessible by bus or car whilst road links at the Hardwick interchange provide access to the motorway and "A" routes to Cardiff, Newport plus further afield to the M4 linking Bristol, west Wales and the Midlands.
