LOCATION:

Saxham Street is on the outskirts of the village of Stowupland, overlooking open farmland to both the front and rear aspects. The property offers easy access to the A140 and A14 trunk roads and the village itself is well appointed with a garage and co-op stores, a primary school, high school, fish and chip shop, the well regarded 'Crown' public house and restaurant and a fine parish church. The town of Stowmarket lies about 2.5 miles to the west and has a comprehensive range of amenities, including a golf club and a mainline rail service to London Liverpool Street taking approximately 80 minutes. The A14 leads to Bury St Edmunds, Cambridge and the M11 to the west and Ipswich and the A12 to the east. The historic town of Bury St Edmunds offers an excellent range of amenities with schooling in the public and private sectors, extensive shopping facilities and a good range of leisure facilities including golf clubs.
