PROPERTY:

A truly impressive three bedroom double fronted detached bungalow located in the sort after village of Belstead. This generous home is approached by a ranch style gated in/out block paved driveway and is set out over one level. The property has undergone a refurbishment/modernisation programme since it was taken over, with redecoration and updating to provide all of those modern everyday needs. The property also has plans drawn ready for an extension although planning permission would need to be applied for. The current accommodation is already extensive and comprises:- entrance hallway, living room (with bay window and wood burner), kitchen/diner, office/study (with access to garage), cloakroom, family bathroom and three good sized bedrooms. Outside the front garden has more than ample parking for multiple vehicles, access to garage and side access to both sides with a generous rear garden. An appointment should be made to view this property internally to avoid genuine disappointment.
