A unique, four bedroom detached family home situated on a 0.12 acre (approx) plot overlooking the fields of the desirable village of Chelmondiston.

The Property

A rare opportunity to acquire this unique four bedroom two reception detached house located in this non estate position just on the fringe of the frequently request village of Chelmondiston. The property (although built on an established plot), it was constructed in the mid 80's and has been owned by the present owners since approximately 2017. In this time the property has been improved and modernised to include most of those everyday needs for a modern family and benefitting from an original barn/outhouse now converted in part to a games/bar/studio room. The property is set out over two levels with the ground floor consisting:- entrance porch, entrance hall, cloakroom, living room, dining area and kitchen/breakfast room. On the half landing there is an office/study whilst the first floor consists of four good sized bedrooms (master with en-suite) and a family bathroom. Outside there are both front and rear gardens whilst to the rear of the plot is the impressive games/bar/studio, garage and workshop.
