Location

The property takes its main access off Holly Bank Road, but also fronts the A629 Halifax Road, in the suburb of Lindley. The A629 Halifax Road is one of the main arterial routes into Huddersfield town centre, located approximately 2.5 miles to the south east.

The property benefits from fantastic motorway links, being within a few minutes' drive of junction 24 of the M62 motorway, which provides direct access to Leeds and Manchester, and also to the wider motorway network.

Description

Independence House is a superb period office building of stone construction, beneath a slate roof, with a modern extension, which is in keeping and linked at first floor level. The property provides high quality office accommodation with good transport links and on-site car parking.

Internally, the property has been completely refurbished to offer a mixture of private and open plan office suites. The accommodation benefits from suspended ceilings, CAT II lighting, carpet floor coverings, comfort cooling, passenger lift to parts. Each floor has dedicated WC and kitchen welfare facilities.

EPC

The property has been assessed for energy performance purposes and achieved a rating of: (C) 68.
