Beautifully Presented | Far Reaching Countryside Views | Stunning Sunset Views | Workshop/Home Office | Bedroom Terraces | Sought After Location | Driveway & Garage | Must be Viewed |

Nestled in the sought-after area of Gedling, this property stands as a testament to modern living coupled with serene vistas. This immaculately presented two/three-bedroom house is an idyllic sanctuary for families or couples seeking a peaceful yet connected lifestyle.

Upon entering, one is greeted by the expansive open plan kitchen/dining/living area, which boasts bi-fold doors that usher in an abundance of natural light and open out to the southeast-facing tiered rear garden. Here, beautiful views stretch over the open countryside, offering a breathtaking backdrop to your daily life.

The property's flexible layout accommodates a variety of living arrangements. One of the reception rooms, with its own terrace, can serve as an additional bedroom or a tranquil retreat. The principle bedroom, a haven of relaxation, features an en-suite shower room for added convenience. A second bedroom also benefits from its balcony, perfect for morning coffees while taking in the elevated views.

Every corner of this house speaks to the meticulous upgrades carried out throughout, from the modern bathroom fittings to the stylish décor. The part-converted garage has been transformed into a functional workshop/home office, providing an ideal space for those working from home.

Residents will not only enjoy the proximity to excellent primary schools, local amenities, and the popular location but also the beautiful sunset views until the very end of the day. The property also comes with two parking spaces, ensuring ample room for vehicles.

Viewings are highly recommended for those who wish to experience the blend of comfort and elegance that this beautiful single-level property provides. It's a home that will charm and delight, promising to be a cherished space for its new owners.
