A great opportunity to get on to the housing market ladder, with this super home located within this extremely popular and established residential location; between the bustling centres of Arnold and Mapperley Top, both having a wide range of amenities for the whole family to enjoy including, a wide range of shops, schools for children of all ages, recreational facilities with gyms, leisure centres, parks and golf courses. There are also a great variety of pubs and restaurants to enjoy a good meal or relaxing drink. The property comes to the market offering 25% ownership with a rental for the other 75% currently set at £375. There will potentially be opportunities to increase ownership.

In brief, the accommodation comprises entrance porch, reception hallway, lounge, dining room and garden room as well as a kitchen which completes the ground floor. From the first floor landing there are three bedrooms and bathroom. To the outside, the property sits on a tree lined pedestrian avenue with parking bays nearby as well as parking and a garage at the rear of the property. The rear garden is low maintenance and has a good sized, lean to store. Gated pedestrian access leads out to the rear and garage.

The property comes to the market with 'no upward chain' which can simplify the whole buying process. For more details and to book your personal viewing appointment contact us now.
