70 High Street , Tarporley, CW6 0AT

£1,750 PCM

This unique property sits on the High Street of the beautiful village of Tarporley. Accessed via a small driveway, with views over the fields to the rear the property this really must be seen to be fully appreciated. The front door to the house leads into a small entrance with downstairs toilet to the left. A large kitchen diner with dual aspect windows affords the room plenty of natural light. Kitchen comprises range oven, dishwasher and under counter fridge freezer.

The spacious lounge with parquet flooring has patio doors leading to outside. With feature gas fire the room makes the ideal cosy family lounge.

A door leads to the staircase and first floor with two double bedrooms and family bathroom. Bathroom with shower over the bath. A second staircase leads to the top floor and a generous master bedroom flooded with natural light from the dual aspect windows. Outside the property there is plenty of parking available and the private rear garden with summer house enables the evening sun to be fully appreciated.

Rent excludes all utilities and is council tax band B
