Location

Tiptree is one of the largest villages in England and is situated approximately 10 miles from Colchester and 7 miles from the historic quayside town of Maldon. Once part of a huge area of heathland that embraced 16 parishes, Tiptree can still boast the largest fragment of lowland heath in Essex. Tiptree has a busy shopping centre of small, individual shops and notable employers, including internationally famous Wilkin and Son jam makers. It is served by four primary schools and one comprehensive school, which is a centre of sporting excellence.

The nearby town of Maldon is located 7 miles from the property with its historic quay, Maldon also offers several independent and national high street retailers as well as supermarkets and restaurants, as does Colchester which is a similar distance from the property. In addition the nearest mainline railway station is located at Kelvedon with a fast and frequent service to London Liverpool Street Station.
