LOCATION:

The property is situated in the heart of the village. The Lizard is the most southerly point on mainland Great Britain and as such is a very dramatic location in which to live and work and is a major draw for visitors.

As a tourist destination, there are a number of businesses catering for these needs along with a sizeable local population.

The nearest town is Helston, an historic market town and where tin was weighed and transacted, hence the Coinagehall. The town has a wide selection of services, schooling, national and niche retailers.

In summary, The Lizard is a very special part of the County in which to live and work.

PROPERTY:

Detached 3 storey building principally of stone construction (with some block work, garage and sorting office), dating to c. 1898, when it was built as a Post Office and has continuously traded as such since.

The Post Office and Shop take up a part of the ground floor at the front with the rear parts being the owners reception rooms and kitchen. On the first floor are up to 6 good sized bedrooms, some of which were converted into an annexe / flat, comprising lounge , kitchen and bedroom.

On the second floor, accessed via a full staircase are 3 rooms windows and a further without that are currently used for storage. These could be additional usable rooms, subject to conversion should a buyer so wish.

Outside is a very useful, sizeable and well serviced garage, which could be converted to an annexe / holiday let (STPP) and beyond a garden.
