LOCATION:

Located on Bank Street, the traditional prime shopping street in Newquay. The town is famous for its surfing beaches and is a huge tourist attraction during the summer months but its appeal as a destination now spreads across the whole year. Large music festivals such as Board Masters are a major pull to the town every year, however, the town also supports a large local population. Nearby Newquay airport provides daily national and international flights making the town easily accessible.

Local occupiers include a host of national operators such as Mountain Warehouse, Boots, Superdry, Caffe Nero, and Holland and Barret. Regional operators such as Rowe's, The Cornish Bakery, Concho Lounge and Warrens Bakery are also present alongside a host of local and independent retailers.

DESCRIPTION:

A two storey retail/office premises of standard brick and block construction with floor to ceiling windows to the front elevation. The unit benefits from side access and communal yard to the rear.

Formerly a bank and currently laid out as office space, this flexible unit would easily configure into a range of uses, subject to the necessary permissions, and is available by way of a new FRI lease from August 2024.
