

Thurloe Close, London SW7

Price £1,250 per week - Unfurnished

Description

Nestled within the distinguished enclave of South Kensington, this delightful two-bedroom mews house presents an exceptional rental opportunity in one of London's most prestigious postcodes. The property occupies a charming position on Thurloe Close, where traditional mews architecture creates an intimate residential atmosphere amidst the grandeur of this world-renowned cultural quarter.

The house provides versatile unfurnished accommodation across two bedrooms and two bathrooms, offering tenants the freedom to create their ideal living environment. The generous 1,209 square feet of space ensures comfortable living while maintaining the intimate character that makes mews properties so sought after. Natural light flows throughout the home, creating bright and welcoming interiors that celebrate both period charm and contemporary living requirements.

South Kensington's cultural richness surrounds this property, with the Victoria and Albert Museum, Natural History Museum, and Science Museum all within easy walking distance. The neighbourhood's sophisticated atmosphere extends from the tree-lined residential streets to the elegant boutiques and fine dining establishments that define this exclusive area. Residents enjoy access to Hyde Park's expansive green spaces and the renowned shopping destinations of Knightsbridge, including the iconic Harrods department store.

Transport connections are exemplary, with South Kensington underground station providing direct access to the Piccadilly, Circle, and District lines, while Knightsbridge station offers convenient Piccadilly line services. The proximity to Brompton Road ensures excellent bus connectivity across central London, making commuting and exploration effortless.

This mews house offers tenants the rare opportunity to experience authentic London living in one of the capital's most desirable locations, combining period character with modern convenience and unparalleled cultural amenities.

Council tax band: G. Rent is payable on a monthly basis and you may be required to pay more than a month's rent in advance, depending on your circumstances. You will be required to pay a 1 week holding deposit following a successful offer. Tenancies with annual rents up to £50,000 will require a 5 weeks' security deposit, while those exceeding this threshold will require a 6 weeks' deposit. Utility bills, council tax, telephone line and broadband are not included in the rent. As well as paying the rent, you may also be required to make some additional permitted payments. If your tenancy does not qualify as an AST, additional fees may apply. Please visit jll.co.uk/fees for details of fees that may be payable when renting a property.
