Positioned along Greenwich's prestigious waterfront, this contemporary two-bedroom apartment offers an exceptional riverside lifestyle within one of London's most historically significant neighbourhoods. The modern development provides a sophisticated urban sanctuary with unparalleled access to both the capital's business districts and Greenwich's rich maritime heritage.

The apartment's standout feature is its private balcony, which frames spectacular panoramic views across the River Thames towards the gleaming towers of Canary Wharf and the distinctive silhouette of the O2 Arena. This elevated perspective captures London's evolving skyline whilst maintaining connection to Greenwich's timeless charm below.

Transport connections place the City and Canary Wharf within easy reach via Cutty Sark and Island Gardens DLR stations, whilst Greenwich mainline station provides direct access to Central London and beyond. The Thames Path offers scenic riverside walks, connecting residents to London's waterfront network whilst maintaining the peaceful riverside ambience that defines this coveted location.
