

Wapping High Street, London E1W

Price £850 per week - Furnished, Unfurnished

Description

Set on the 1st floor, blissfully above the lapping the waves of the river Thames, the apartment extends to a very well proportioned 1165 sq ft of living and entertaining space, and offers a plethora of warehouse features and charm throughout.

With flexible accommodation available across several room arrangements, this boutique style apartment offers a large Southwest facing reception room with loading bay doors opening to a good-sized balcony overlooking The Thames. A modern kitchen and bathroom are offered off a welcoming hallway, whilst a large bedroom suite, with fitted wardrobes offers a Juliet balcony with tree-lined views over the Thames Path at the rear.

A further room is currently used as a very large dressing area but has previously been used as both a study or further bedroom offers excellent storage and / or wardrobe space, and a large shower suite is offered also.

The property also benefits from a private storage room located within the car park, a share in the communal boat store room, and offers a 'live in' building manager.

Oliver's Wharf, unusual for its Victorian Gothic Revival style, was the first warehouse to be redeveloped along the river Thames and serves as a distinctive reminder of the commercial activity which characterised this part of the Victorian riverside. Today the building offers a limited number of characterful bespoke apartments and represents true warehouse living.

The building sits within the Wapping Pierhead conservation area, along a quiet cobbled section of the Thames Path benefiting from a tranquil setting close to St Katharine Docks and the edges of the City of London. Transport links are available from Wapping (0.3mi) and Tower Hill & Gateway (0.9mi) stations, whilst The Tower Millennium Pier (0.9mi) provides a leisurely River bus service to Greenwich, Southbank, and West End.
