178 Stirling Street

Welcomed to the market is this superbly appointed and immaculately presented, sandstone built semi-detached villa located on the popular Stirling Street in Dunipace. Built in circa 1900, this four-bedroom home offers spacious and flexible accommodation over two levels and retains many of its beautiful period features. The home has been thoughtfully upgraded to an extremely high standard by the present owners, whilst further boasting many impressive original features.

The internal accommodation is formed over two levels. Upon entering the ground floor is the entrance vestibule into the reception hallway, lounge, family room, kitchen, utility room, shower room, and large cupboard offering ample storage. The upper level offers three generously sized double bedrooms, one single bedroom and a family bathroom. There are a host of traditional features such as decorative cornicing, ceiling roses and deep skirtings. Warmth is provided by hive gas central heating and double glazing.
