Halliday Homes are delighted to present Drumcross Steading. This tastefully presented four-bedroom home forms part of a picturesque development of eight properties set in a highly desirable semi-rural location, close to the large town of Bathgate. Converted in 2006, the property offers contemporary living whilst retaining much of the original character of the building. The property is one of the largest within the development and enjoys an enviable corner plot, with spectacular views across open countryside.
