7 Mains Road

A rare opportunity to purchase this stunning four-bedroom maisonette built in 1896 and situated in an enviable plot in a highly desirable location and conveniently placed for all local amenities and within walking distance of Linlithgow town centre. Further highlighting an abundance of spacious, flexible family accommodation over two floors with stylish contemporary interior, early viewing is recommended.

The accommodation comprises on the ground floor, entrance hallway, lounge, kitchen diner, bathroom, family room, large double bedroom, and a further bedroom/study. The upper floor provides a further three bedrooms and shower room. Warmth is provided by gas central heating and double glazing. Additionally, the home benefits from ample storage throughout.

Externally the property has a beautiful large rear garden with laid lawn, shrubs and plants and paved patio for garden furniture. The garden is bound by timber fencing. A second fenced garden space with lawn and plants also serves as a drying green. Substantial off-road parking is available.
