The Lodge Home Farm

Discover this unique five-bedroom detached residence featuring expansive living spaces, extensive gardens, and its own paddock with outbuildings, beautifully positioned in the countryside of Head of Muir, right within the very heart of the Forth Valley and the Scottish lowlands. This single-level home offers tremendous potential for a variety of prospective purchasers as well as outstanding value for money.

Arranged entirely on one level, this residence provides spacious accommodation throughout. The interior layout features a well-proportioned L-shaped entrance hall that connects all rooms, an expansive open-plan living and dining area positioned at the front of the home, and a kitchen situated to the rear, with back door offering easy access to the extensive gardens and field beyond. The property comprises five substantial double bedrooms, three of which include ensuite WCs, plus a games room and recently refurbished main family bathroom.

The home sits within extensive grounds surrounded by open land, including a rear paddock area with its own bespoke stable outbuildings. Complete perimeter fencing ensures privacy and security throughout the plot. The gardens are predominantly lawn with established shrubs and hedging creating natural boundaries around the property. Parking is well-provided with a gravelled driveway at the front, while the large rear paddock and stable accommodation offer excellent facilities for equestrian enthusiasts.
