Full Description

Located along one of the most sought-after roads in Little Kingshill, this charming detached property offers spacious and versatile accommodation. The property is within close proximity to the picturesque village of Great Missenden, known for its quaint charm and excellent transport links.

As you step inside, you are greeted by a welcoming entrance hall that leads to the principal living spaces. The double-aspect living room, featuring a cozy wood-burning fireplace, has sliding doors that open onto the rear garden, making it a perfect space for relaxation or entertaining. The separate dining room offers flexibility and can easily function as a family room if desired. There is also a home office/study, ideal for those who work remotely or require a quiet space for reading or studying. The heart of the home is the generously sized fitted kitchen and breakfast room.

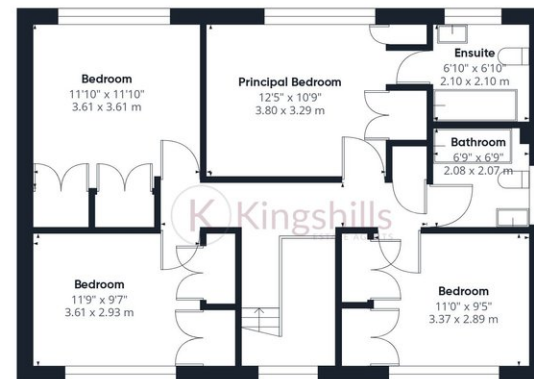

On the first floor, there are four well-proportioned bedrooms, including the principle bedroom with an en-suite bathroom. A family bathroom serves the remaining three bedrooms, all of which are bright and spacious.

Externally, the property boasts a large driveway to the front, providing ample parking space, alongside a secluded lawn area. There is access to the double garage from the front as well. The rear garden is highly secluded, offering privacy, and stretches across the width of the property, perfect for outdoor activities and summer gatherings. Additionally, there is a side garden with access to the front.

Nearby Towns and Transport Links: Great Missenden is just a short drive away from the property, a charming village with a selection of boutique shops, cafes, and restaurants. It is well-known for its literary heritage as the former home of Roald Dahl and features the Roald Dahl Museum. Great Missenden railway station offers direct services to London Marylebone in under 45 minutes, making it an ideal location for commuters seeking a peaceful rural setting while maintaining easy access to the capital.
