Location

Doncaster is a large market town in the East Midland region, located approximately 23 miles north east of Sheffield, 33 miles south east of Leeds, 40 miles north west of Lincoln and 45 miles north of Nottingham. The city has a population of approximately 302,400 people (2011 Census).

The City is well connected by road, rail and air, positioned in close proximity to the M1, A1 and M18, with the Frenchgate Interchange located in the heart of the city. The city also benefits from the Doncaster Sheffield airport, offering routes to a number of destinations internationally.

Situation

The property is located in a prominent position fronting South Parade, adjacent to Hall Cross, which has been traditionally Doncaster’s main professional office location. The building sits opposite the junction with Town Fields and is within relatively close proximity to Doncaster Town Centre.

The immediate vicinity comprises a mixture of professional occupiers which include well known local solicitors and accountancy firms, together with residential developments and conversions, such as Park View apartments which are located on the western boundary.

Description

The property comprises a predominantly Grade II Listed double fronted former house, now converted to office use and arranged over basement, lower ground, ground, first and second floors. It is configured in two distinct parts, being the original Grade II Listed section fronting South Parade, extended to the rear at a later date and benefiting from substantial on site car parking provision, accessed from the rear service road.

Internally, the front accommodation is configured predominantly on a cellular basis retaining some of the traditional features, benefiting from good natural lighting and the provision of staff welfare facilities.

The rear portion of the building is of a modern construction configured as open plan floor plates finished to a good specification including suspended acoustic tile ceilings with recessed lighting panels and air conditioning units. In addition, there is a comprehensive provision of staff welfare facilities and the benefit of two staircases both to the front and rear of the property.
