The Property

White Hall is positioned well back from a minor country lane via a private farm track. This attractive grade II listed house prominently stands in its immaculately maintained gardens which abuts a cherry orchard, grazing paddocks and arable farmland on three sides.

The house is entered via a single storey addition which is probably 19th century. This area consists of a boot room / entrance hall with an adjacent utility / laundry room providing ample full height storage cupboards and the oil-fired boiler.

The kitchen / breakfast room with pamment tiled floor is fitted on three sides with oak worksurfaces, inset twin butlers sink, Rangemaster cooker, numerous cupboards and drawers and modern integral appliances.

The impressive dining room and a particularly spacious triple aspect sitting room, all with oak flooring, are divided by a substantial inglenook fireplace with a glazed four-sided wood burner being a focal point. The remaining ground floor consists of a corner study and an adjacent cloakroom.

The first floor comprises a welcoming landing with further full-height cupboards. Bedroom one is twin aspect and similarly to all the other rooms on both floors enjoys wonderful views over the gardens. There are three further double bedrooms, all of which are well-proportioned for a house of its ilk. All three bath / shower rooms (including the ensuite to bedroom one) are stylishly fitted with a contemporary edge.

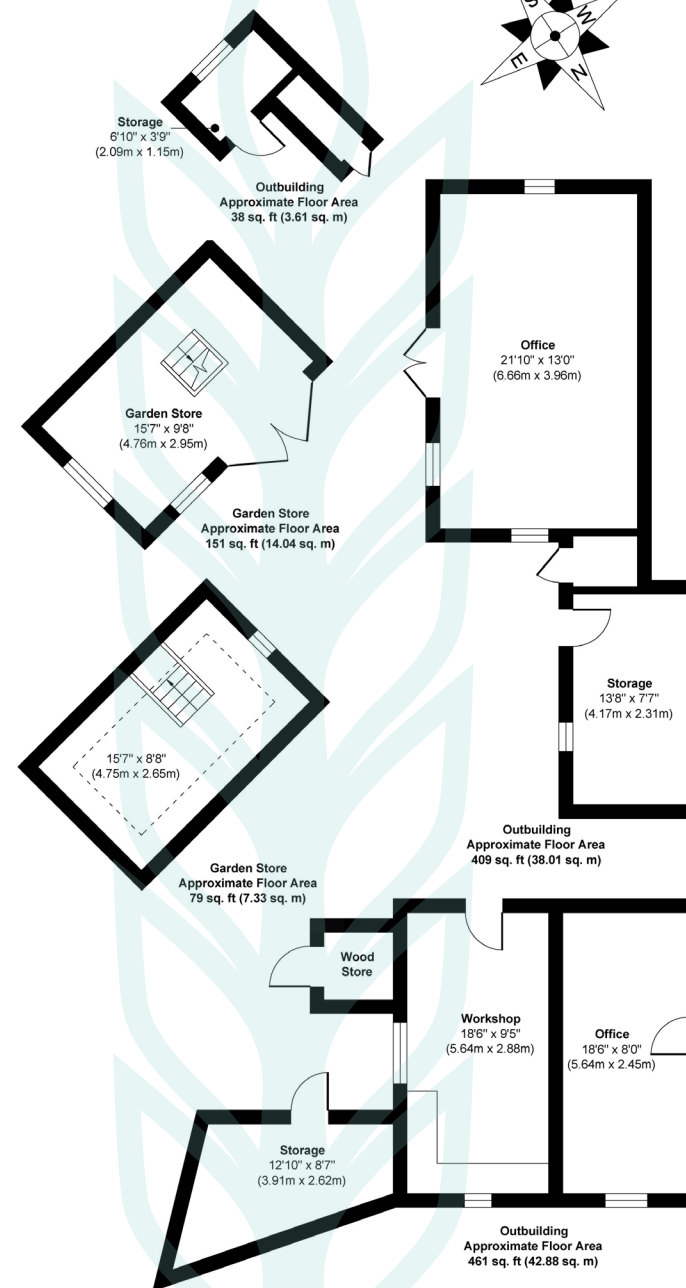

The house is positioned in about 1.18 acres of grounds which equally to the house are pristinely presented. There are metal edged terraces, flower borders with pea shingle paths which meander through areas of lawn which are interspersed mature deciduous trees. Set next to an area of raised decking is a natural pond which is also defined by metal edging with heather borders. To the far southern end of the garden is an orchard.

Positioned next to the front parking area is an office / studio with adjoining workshop, store and wood store. The principal outbuilding is a further detached office / studio which could be converted into annex accommodation. Remaining outbuildings include further useful stores, include a detached building to the far western corner.
