The Property

CHAIN FREE - Little Bungalow is a characterful, detached property set in the heart of the picturesque village of Newton Green. The accommodation is arranged over one level offering a pleasing combination of period charm with modern comfort. The property offers a high specification with fittings such as quadruple glazing, underfloor heating in the family bathroom, and bespoke kitchen.

An entrance hall provides access to the living accommodation and bedroom one which is of generous proportion and enjoys pleasant views across Newtons golf course. Within the original part of the bungalow is the open plan kitchen / living room providing a cosy and sociable space. The shaker style kitchen provides base and eye level units, with oak worktops and butler sink, with integrated electric hob and oven, and plumbing for dishwasher / washing machine.

The living room provides access to the fully tiled family bathroom with underfloor heating and a heated towel rail, and to bedroom two.

Outside to the rear lies a fully enclosed and private garden with a party barn providing a perfect space for entertaining with a wealth of exposed timbers. This outbuilding has great potential for further development (STPP).

To the front lies a shared gravelled drive providing off road parking for one vehicle.

Agents Note

Little Bungalow has run as a successful Air B&B for the past year. Further details available upon request.

Location

Newton Green is a charming Suffolk village, known for its picturesque setting centred around a large village green, and home to the historic Newton Green Golf Club. Established in 1907, this club offers residents unique access to an original 9-hole course set on common land, and full members enjoy access to the more extensive 18-hole course. The village enjoys a local pub known as The Saracens Head which is just a short stroll from Little Bungalow, and a convenient village shop for daily essentials.
