GARDEN AND GROUNDS

Wood Rising is approached via electrically operated wrought iron gates which open onto a sizeable circular resin bonded driveway which in turn leads to the attached triple garage all of which is bordered by mature trees and hedging. There is access on both sides leading to the southerly facing rear garden comprising large raised sun terrace with outside lighting, wrought iron fenced surround and steps leading down to a large expanse of well-maintained lawn all of which is surrounded by a variety of mature hedging and trees thereby offering a good degree of privacy.
