DC Lane are thrilled to present a delightful Edwardian mid terraced house that exudes character and style in a popular Peverell road, with it's close proximity to Hyde Park parade of shops and entrance to Central Park a short stroll away for leisure pursuits.

As you step inside, you'll be greeted by the elegant stripped floorboards that add a touch of sophistication to the space and feature in the hall and both reception rooms. Stripped doors feature throughout the property and period fireplaces not only provide a focal point in the rooms but also bring a sense of history and charm to the property. The two principle rooms are generous in size and the brand new kitchen with integrated fridge/freezer and well appointed shower room are not only modern and functional but also add a fresh and contemporary feel to the home. To the first floor there are two double bedrooms, the master spans the width of the property and both feature a built in wardrobe. Further storage solutions include deep cupboards in the hallway and rear lobby.

One of the highlights of the property is the enclosed courtyard garden the perfect spot for hosting social gatherings or simply relaxing within this lovely outdoor space.

The house features a quality finish throughout, ensuring that every corner reflects a high standard of craftsmanship and attention to detail. With a brand new gas central heating system, new double glazing and no onward chain this charming home showcases the wealth of original features, striking the perfect balance between modern and classic. A viewing is highly recommended.
