This charming top floor apartment is situated in a handsome Georgian Grade II listed building adjacent to the Roman Baths and Bath Abbey. A beautiful stairwell winds up to the top landing. Once inside the apartment the sitting room overlooks the historic cobbled Abbey Green with its ancient plane tree.

There is a double bedroom and a good sized, recently refitted kitchen and bathroom. The flat has been newly decorated throughout. The kitchen has base units, oven, hob and undercounter fridge. There is a breakfast bar area with two stools for seating. Please note the landlord is looking into supplying a washing machine. The living room has plenty of space for sofa and coffee table, and the bedroom is located off of this room.

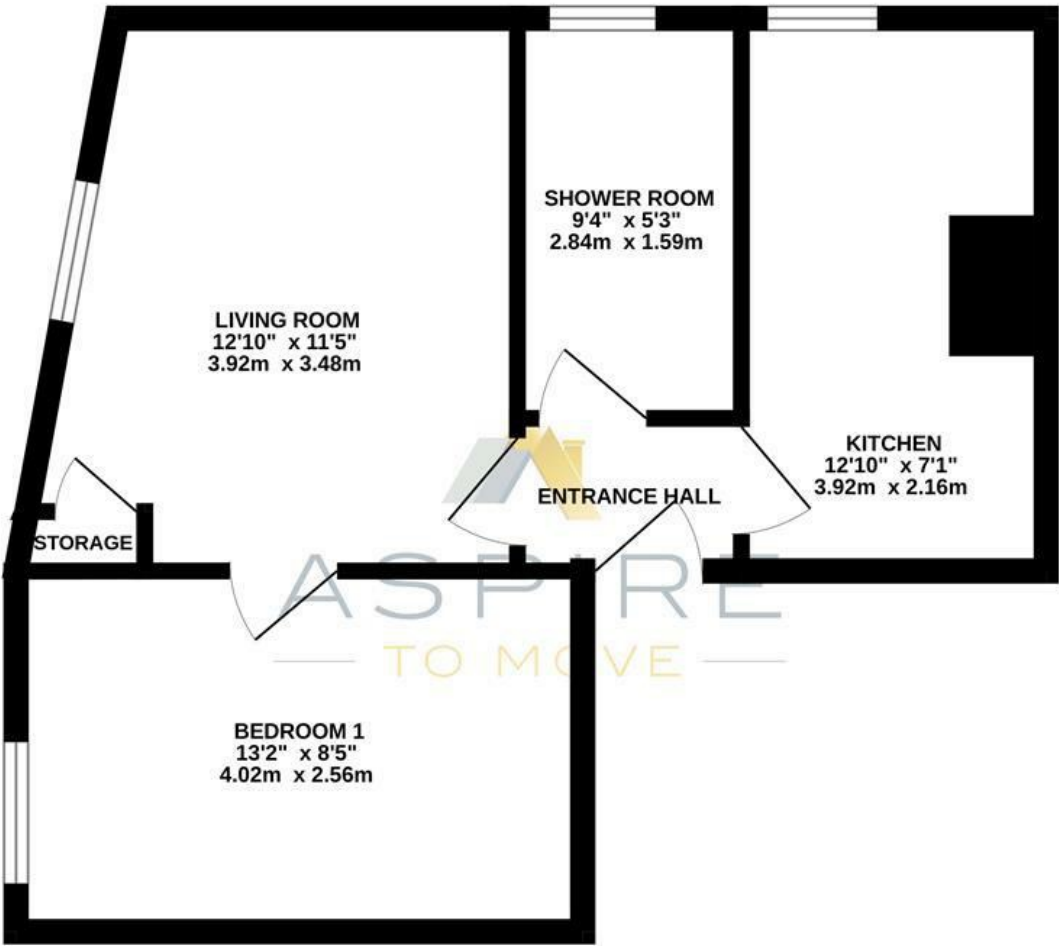

The flat is available now and offered unfurnished. The flat would best suit a single professional or couple.
