FOR SALE

£275,000

Location

The site is situated off Connaught Road in Chingford, East London. Connaught Road leads into Station Road, which is the main shopping area in Chingford and comprises several multiple retailers such as Greggs, Tesco Express and The Co-Operative as well as a number of restaurants and coffee shops such as Costa Coffee and Cafe Nero. Chingford Station (Overground) is less than 0.2 miles (320 m) from the site and access to the motorway network is via the M25 at Waltham Abbey or the M11 at Loughton (Southbound Only).

Description

The premises comprise an open site which is accessed via a service road from Connaught Road. The site has been cleared by the vendor and footings have also been put in and signed off.

Planning

Planning consent (ref no: 152257) was granted for the demolition of the existing buildings and the construction of a two storey building for office (Use Class B1(a)) at ground floor level and ancillary storage at first floor. Full details are available upon request. The proposed building has an approximate gross internal area of 1,610 sq ft (149.6 sq m) and would also benefit from outdoor amenity space. The site may be also suitable for another development, subject to gaining the necessary consents.

Terms

The freehold interest of the site is available for sale for £275,000. Please note that our client has already made the CIL payment.
