

The Convent, Orchard Lane, Leigh WN7 1EF

£139,950

This charming one-bedroom Grade II listed, top-floor apartment, originally built in 1873, beautifully combines period elegance with modern conveniences. Upon entering, you're welcomed by a stunning staircase and a breathtaking stained glass window that immediately sets the tone for this character-filled property. Many original features have been carefully preserved, including classic sash windows that fill the apartment with light and showcase the building's historical charm. The open-plan lounge and kitchen area offers a spacious and airy atmosphere, enhanced by the sweeping views of the communal gardens, which are shaded by mature trees. The large master bedroom is a sanctuary of comfort, complete with a Jack and Jill ensuite that is both practical and private. The apartment boasts allocated parking, visitor parking, and a private, electric-gated entrance, ensuring both convenience and security. Accessed via an unadopted road surrounded by fields, the property offers a sense of rural tranquility while still being close to transport links, including the Atherleigh Way bypass and the East Lancashire Road, making it ideal for commuters. Nearby local shops, supermarkets, and restaurants add to the convenience, and a short walk takes you to the picturesque Lilford Park. This unique apartment is perfect for those who appreciate historical details and want a peaceful yet connected lifestyle.
