Guide price £975,000

Nestled on a generous plot in one of High Wycombe's most popular neighbourhoods, this expansive five-bedroom detached family home exudes charm and comfort.

Description

Upon entering through the front door, you are greeted by a spacious central hallway that offers a captivating view straight through the dining room to the rear garden. The hallway seamlessly connects to the dual aspect sitting room, a convenient cloakroom, a formal dining room, a well-appointed kitchen, and an additional reception room. The generously proportioned kitchen breakfast room also provides access to a utility room.

Ascending to the first floor reveals five bedrooms, the majority featuring fitted wardrobes, and a family bathroom. The principal bedroom impresses with its spaciousness and boasts a well-appointed ensuite bathroom.

The outdoor space is a highlight of this property, featuring both front and rear gardens. The serene south-west facing rear garden beckons with a sizable patio, ideal for entertaining family and friends, and a vast expanse of lush lawn.

Situation

Situated in a prime location, residents enjoy easy access to a plethora of leisure and entertainment facilities, including the Marlow Hill sports centre and the Handy Cross multi-screen cinema complex. High Wycombe's new centre, Eden, further enhances the local lifestyle with its array of leisure and shopping amenities, including a 12-screen cinema, a 22-lane bowling alley, various restaurants, and popular high street shops.

For commuters, the Chiltern Line offers a regular rail service to London Marylebone from High Wycombe station, completing the journey in approximately 25 minutes. Junction 4 of the M40 motorway provides convenient access to London and the M25. The region is renowned for its excellent state and private education options, including prestigious institutions such as The Royal Grammar School, Wycombe High School, John Hampden, Wycombe Abbey, and St Michael's Catholic School.
