Description

The property is approached via a newly laid Cotswold stone driveway, providing ample parking for two vehicles. Upon entering, a welcoming central hallway leads to the principal reception rooms. The sitting room, positioned to the right, features an acoustic panelled wall with subtle LED backlighting, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The heart of the home is the open-plan kitchen and dining area, fitted just 12 months ago with a range of quality integrated appliances, a four-ring gas hob, and a central island with pendant lighting. French doors open directly onto the landscaped rear garden, seamlessly extending the living space outdoors. A separate reception room, ideal as a home office or snug, along with a useful storage room, complete the ground floor.

The first floor comprises two generous double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes, and a beautifully appointed family bathroom. Designed with luxury in mind, the bathroom offers a walk-in rainfall shower, freestanding bathtub, vanity unit, and wall-hung WC, complemented by thoughtfully designed storage niches.

Externally, the property has been professionally landscaped to both front and rear. The rear garden features a porcelain patio, currently utilised as an outdoor kitchen and dining area, with steps leading to a pergola seating area and a garden shed. A rear gate opens directly onto open countryside, providing immediate access to woodland walks and scenic views.
