Property Description

A pretty Hornton stone built semi-detached cottage located in the heart of the delightful village of Tysoe. This attractive home is located next to the church at the head of a no-through road. Retaining much of its character and charm with an inglenook fireplace and log burning stove in the living room and a private courtyard space to the rear and a parking space to the front, viewing is strongly recommended.

The accommodation comprises in brief: Living Room, Galley Kitchen, Two Bedrooms and Family Bathroom.

Tysoe is a beautiful village with a wonderful community spirit and is located equally between Stratford-upon-Avon and Banbury just off the A422. The village is well served with many amenities including a health centre, post office, village store, hairdressers, medieval parish church and a pub. Tysoe has a well regarded academy primary school and also the old fire station houses a children's nursery school with private therapy rooms above. Excellent state and secondary schooling can also be found nearby.
