

MAIN STREET STATHERN

DRAFT COPY FOR PROOFING PURPOSES ONLY

Attractive double fronted character farmhouse with four bedrooms and two adjoining self-contained flats which were originally all part of the same accommodation and may easily be able to connect back.

Included are good sized gardens and a paddock of approximately one acre, with its own separate access. (maybe subject to development uplift)

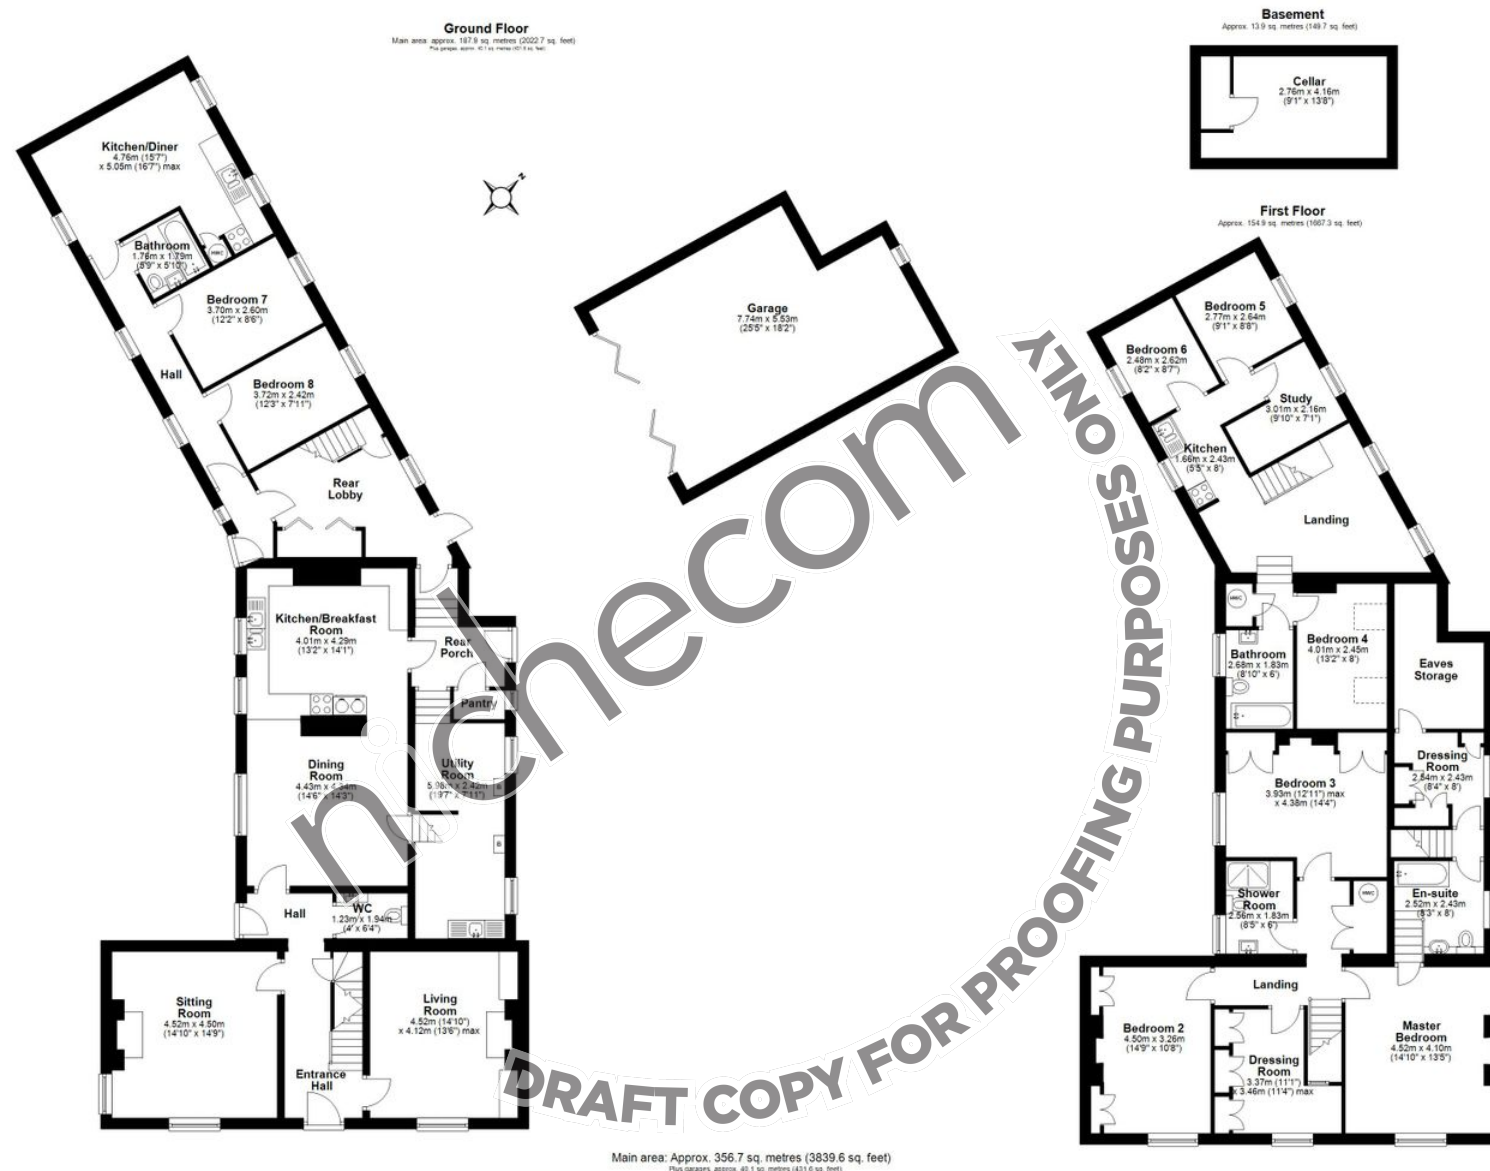

This former farmhouse has attractive high ceilings, good sized reception rooms and bedrooms with an open plan living / kitchen with aga, pantry and utility / boot room off.

The property would benefit from updating and modernisation but retains many character features.

Offered with No chain.

Stathern is a picturesque village located in the Vale of Belvoir, within Leicestershire, England, just a few miles northeast of Melton Mowbray. Nestled at the foot of the Belvoir escarpment, Stathern offers scenic countryside views and a peaceful rural setting.

The village is known for its attractive stone and brick cottages, a strong sense of community, and a blend of historical and modern features. Stathern has convenient access to nearby towns like Melton Mowbray and Grantham, making it appealing for commuters and those seeking a tranquil lifestyle with a touch of history and community spirit.
